

Cookie Policy

By using our website and agreeing to this policy, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

Cookies are files, often including unique identifiers, that are sent by web servers to web browsers, and which may then be sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server. Cookies can be used by web servers to identify and track users as they navigate different pages on a website, and to identify users returning to a website.

Our cookies do not contain any information that personally identifies you, we do not use any information in the cookie and its sole purpose is to help the customers browsing experience.

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies. You can also delete cookies already stored on your computer. Obviously, doing this may have a negative impact on the usability of many websites.
